<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Activity</th>
<th>More Information:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2014-2016 | • Washington participates in the Innovations to Incubation cohort on Transforming the Workforce Birth through Age 8.
• Establishes the ECE Workforce Council. | Cross-Sector partners participated as the Washington team focused on recommendations 10 and 12 from the Transforming the Workforce report.
Washington Established the ECE Workforce Council, a cross-sector body to provide overall workforce recommendations to state and public agencies.
DCYF Workforce Development Initiatives Page: tinyurl.com/WorkforceDVLP. |
| 2017-2018 | National Governor’s Association (NGA) grant focused on compensation. | The NGA report summarizes Washington’s early learning workforce challenges, identifies next steps for developing a compensation strategy, and details a communications plan to increase awareness of the need for highly-skilled and compensated early learning educators.
NGA Report: tinyurl.com/NGA-Report |
• Staff Qualifications reflects state’s Stackable Certificates. | • Compensation Report: tinyurl.com/CompReportWA.
• Staff Qualifications Overview: tinyurl.com/StaffQualsDCYF.
• Aligned Standards in Early Learning: tinyurl.com/ELStandardsAlignment. |
| 2019-2025 | Washington Legislature passes Child Care Access Now Act (HB 1344) and includes direction for compensation efforts. | Washington Child Care Access Now Act directs a child care collaborative taskforce to review the recommendations from the Compensation Report for implementation and to achieve K-12 parity by January 2025.  